

Dear President Park Geun-hye,

Mahatma Gandhi once said, “The greatness of a nation and its moral progress can be judged by the way its animals are treated.” Each year, thousands of cats are bludgeoned and boiled alive to make goyangi soju in South Korea. To achieve greatness, your country must:

1. Make a new law to ban cat slaughter for human consumption.
2. Enforce the existing animal protection laws.
3. Stop claiming that goyangi soju is a traditional medicine in South Korea.
4. Educate the Korean people about the humane treatment of animals.

한국은 개 고양이 도살 법으로 금지하라.

동물을 보호하지 않으면 선진국이 될수없다.

보신탕은 문화음식 아니고 한국명예 더럽힌다.

Name: _____ Country: _____

TO MAIL FROM
THE U.S., PLACE
$1.10 IN POSTAGE
HERE. NON-U.S.
RESIDENTS, PLEASE
CHECK WITH THE
POSTAL SERVICE
FOR POSTCARD
RATES TO KOREA.

President Park Geun-hye
Blue House
1 Cheongwadae-ro
Jongno-gu, Seoul 110-820
Republic of Korea